CONVERSATION GUIDE FOR MANAGERS

Guide the conversation and listen actively.

Start with the team's overall survey results to build a shared understanding before exploring the focus areas.

SURVEY	TEAM	SURVEY DATE
Employee listening '25	Sales West	22 Aug 2025

Be curious · Listen before deciding · Share ownership

Focus areas

Share the focus areas with the team, then agree on one to explore together.

1. Within my organization, the work processes are well organized — 36% — MANAGING SYSTEMS
2. My manager gives me feedback that helps me improve — 41% — PROVIDING DIRECTION
3. I have opportunities to grow within this organization — 48% — CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Team strengths

Celebrate what your team does well and keep building on its strengths.

1. I feel comfortable within the team — 88% — ENGAGEMENT
2. Our team trusts one another — 85% — COLLABORATION
3. I enjoy my work — 82% — WORK ENJOYMENT

Showing the results to your team

Put the results on the screen so everyone sees the same picture you do. This link opens your focus areas straight away, and the code does the same on your phone.

my.effectory.com/results/focus-areas

Scan to open your focus areas

The conversation, about 35 to 45 minutes

1. Open the conversation — 5 min
2. Look at the overall results and select a focus area — 5 to 10 min
3. Take a moment to celebrate — 5 min
4. Dive deeper and set concrete agreements — 15 to 20 min
5. Close off the meeting — 3 min

1 Open the conversation

Set the purpose: understand the experience behind the results before deciding what to do. Agree to listen to understand, make room for different experiences, and discuss patterns rather than individual responses.

SAY SOMETHING LIKE

"These results tell us where to look, not why they are what they are. I would like us to understand the experience behind them together."

2 Look at the results, select one area

OPEN THE PICTURE

What do you recognise in this picture?

CHECK RESONANCE

What feels incomplete or surprising? Which focus area is most useful for us to explore?

3 Take a moment to celebrate

NOTICE

What is helping this work well? When have you experienced this at its best?

BUILD

What should we protect, repeat or build on?

4 Dive deeper, then agree a step

Choose two or three, listen, ask a follow up, then summarise what you hear.

Notice
What stands out to you about this result?

Example
What does this look like in our day to day work? Can you think of a recent example?

Context
What was happening when the survey was answered? Was there a project, change, deadline or period of pressure that may have influenced the result?

Driver
What seems to be making this easier or harder?

Difference
Does anyone experience this differently? What might explain the difference?

Influence
What part of this is within our team's influence, and what needs support elsewhere?

Meaningful change
What would make a meaningful difference?

KEEP THEM TALKING

"Can you say a little more?" · "What else is important here?" · "I am hearing … Did I capture that accurately?"

What you agree together

Decide whether to improve, monitor or need support, then set one small step and name who owns it.

Shared focus	What we learned	First step	Owner and timing	Support needed	Follow up moment

5 Close off the meeting

SUMMARISE AND CLOSE

"Today we heard … We agreed to … The first step is … [name] will … by …"

"What is the most important thing we should take forward?"

Thank everyone, and make sure the agreement and the follow up moment are visible to the team afterwards.